

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections.

The privacy law has had a huge difference at home during meal time and family time.

The law has been VERY EFFECTIVE and I honestly admit I no longer receive unwanted sales calls, only those who have my permission to call